

Growing the Neighborhood Dig In Cleveland

Join us on Thursday, February 21st at 7pm as we dig into a bit of Cleveland history, rich in German influence that continues on today. From the Cultural Gardens to Edgewater Park and beyond,

Hans Kopp, author, historian and an organic gardener himself, will share little known stories, gardening information and secrets from the past and present. Hans also leads volunteers in the upkeep of the German Cultural Garden and is eager to share with us the strong impact Germans have had on our city.

The program is FREE!
Door Prizes and light refreshments provided!

We will meet in the St. Stephen Club Room.

Parking lot is accessible off W. 57th

This project funded in part by a grant from Neighborhood Connections, a program of The Cleveland Foundation.
